

2. Marinera Holy Week Museum Salvador Caurín Alarcón

HISTORY: Located in the warehouses of the old rice mill. The museum interprets the heritage of the Marinera Holy Week. It brings together images of virgins and Christs, the thrones, biers, sculpture groups of the parishes...Suits, posters, photographs, souvenirs, etc. This festival has special attractions such as “the Biblical characters”, “la trenca de perols”, “the speech of the Christs beside the sea”, and others. The visit to the museum helps to understand all the acts that are celebrated in the churches and on streets of the Seaside Towns, in the second Festival of the city of Valencia after the Fallas.
