HISTORY: Located on the old Canyamelar rice mill, which was in use for most of the 20th century. It had different owners: the Umbert, Lluch and la Serra families. Rice from Albufera and other fields arrives here. At the mill, the husk was removed and separated, the rice was cleaned and whitened. In the museum one may see the machinery that was used, which was effective and rapid in carrying out these tasks. A second electric motor increased the productivity of the mill. The techniques used in the mill were similar to those used today in factories selling rice.
