HORNO VIEJO (OLD OVEN)

It is a late medieval oven of the XV century, its structure has suffered several refurbishments throughout the centuries to adapt it to the need of each era. However, his modern exterior appearance hides inside elements of a traditional oven. In fact his medieval cooking pot, today disappeared, was under the direct manor of the King, to whom was paid the annual tax of 7 Valencian “sueldos” on Christmas day for the privilege of cooking bread ( Until the abolition of the old regime in 1835), it should be noted that, since 1866, belongs to Ibañez’s family of Massarrojos.
