

46. L'Església dels Àngels Square

L'Església dels Àngels Square lies north of the Pixavaques irrigation channel, today El Pintor Ferrandis Street, the boundary between El Cabanyal and Cap de França, and very close to La Mare de Déu de Vallivana Square.

Trapezoidal in shape, to the west is the façade of the Ntra. Sra. de los Ángeles church; to the south the El Cabanyal road, an extension of the old Ntra. Sra. de los Ángeles path; to the north the old Horno road (in honour of an old bakery that is still in operation); and to the west, it borders with tall buildings erected in the 1960s and 1970s, breaking the square's original appearance.
