On the outer wall of the Church of Saint Monica, in the square of the same name, you can see a Valencian ceramic altarpiece that recalls one of the saint's solemn entrances into the city of València, when Franciscan brother Francesc Eiximenis asked him: “Pare Vicent, ¿cómo va la vanidad?” (Father Vincent, how is vanity going?); and he replied “Va y viene, pero no se detiene” (It comes and goes, but never stops).

This was one of the gates to the city from Puzol, Sagunto, Teruel and Barcelona.
